Victoria Falls, Zimbabwe

In the area of Victoria Falls, the climate is sub-tropical, with a mild and dry winter from mid-May to mid-August (during which, however, nights are cold), and a hot, muggy and rainy summer from mid-November to mid-March. The rains occur in the form of short downpours or thunderstorms. Between September and November, before the rainy season, is the hot period, in fact the hottest of the year, in which the temperature easily reaches 35 °C, and sometimes even 40 °C, even though the humidity is not as high as in summer. Precipitation is not abundant, since it amounts to 660 millimetres per year, but it is quite abundant from December to February, while it almost never rains from May to September.

Kasane, Botswana

The climate in Kasane is referred to as a local steppe climate. During the year, there is little rainfall in Kasane. The average annual temperature in Kasane is 22.9 °C. In a year, the average rainfall is 643 mm with the majority of rain falling between October and March, with December and January being the wettest.

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide:

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction in which he or she is guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves the group at the end of the tour, they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader:

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides in each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village, and offer information on the place visited on the bus, however they are not required to have specific knowledge on art, architecture, or history. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made
